Defining Survival: Speak

Name:

Essential Question for *Speak:

What does it mean to be a survivor?
What is does is mean to survive?

Step 1 - On Your OWN Questions -

1) In your own words, define survival. What does it mean to survive?

2) Are there different levels of survival? What are they?

Step Two: Compare your personal definition of survival to the dictionary definition.

Definition of Survive:
1) ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________

My example:

2) ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________

My example:
QUICKWRITE - 5 Minutes - Describe your own experience with survival. It could be a physical or an emotional survival.